

Transparency and Effectiveness in the Charitable Sector

A one day forum of global charity experts

May 14, 2010

10:00 am to 5:30 pm

(Check-in at 9:30 am)

Bingeman Conference Centre, 425 Bingemans Centre Drive, Kitchener

You are invited to a one-day free event put on by the International Committee on Fundraising Organizations and sponsored by the Organization for Security and Co-Operation in Europe that brings Canadian and international charity experts together to discuss the issues related to building donor confidence.

International Committee on Fundraising Organizations
ICFO – the association of national monitoring agencies

TOPICS INCLUDE:

Policy Priorities for the Charities Directorate

Bryan McLean, Director Policy Planning and Legislation Division, Charities Directorate, Canada Revenue Agency

Public Policy Options for Private Generosity

Michael Van Pelt, President, Cardus, Canada

Compliance Division Overview and Major Compliance Issues

Danie Huppé-Cranford, Director of Compliance, Charities Directorate, Canada Revenue Agency

NPO Regulation, Transparency and Fraud Prevention – International Developments, Challenges and Capacity Building

Radha Ivory, Research Assistant, Faculty of Law, University of Basel, Switzerland

The Global Mapping of NPO's Transparency, Monitoring and Certification Tools

Michael Hammer, Executive Director, One World Trust, United Kingdom

BBB's Project on Charity Effectiveness

Bennett M. Weiner, Chief Operating Officer, BBB Wise Giving Alliance, USA

Effectiveness Trends in Selected Countries

Canada - John Pellowe, CEO, Canadian Council of Christian Charities

Switzerland - Martina Ziegerer, CEO, ZEWO

Germany - Burkhard Wilke, Executive Director, DZI

To register for this event please RSVP to lynda.dubois@cccc.org asap with the name, position and organization of those attending.

Questions? Call 519-669-5137