BEST PRACTICES

CCCC encourages all web members to use their best efforts to:

- Form an active governing board that holds regular meetings, creates appropriate policy, maintains effective control, and provides strategic direction.
- Establish appropriate systems for financial & internal control, transparent financial reporting, and fair treatment of staff and volunteers.
- Comply with federal, provincial, and municipal laws and regulations.
- Serve the interests of donors, members, and beneficiaries in an ethical way.
- Protect the confidentiality of personal data.
- Be open and honest in dealing with the public.

We understand that web membership does not entitle us to use the CCCC logo or the CCCC Accredited Member logo, which is reserved exclusively for CCCC Accredited members.
