WORK, WORK, WORK, WORK! IS THAT ALL THERE IS?

- 1) Reflect on the role that work plays in your life and the degree, if any, that it comes between you and the life God wants you to have.
- 2) What activities bring you joy? What makes you feel refreshed? How often do you do those things?
- 3) Ask several people who are close to you what they would like more of from you if you had more time. Do they wish you had more time to spend with them?
- 4) Do you have time to experience the richness of God's world? Would you like more time for this? What can you do to free up time?
- 5) What advice would you give to a workaholic? How would you help them see their need to change?
