- 1) Study John 16:12-15, 23, 26-28 and John 17 for what Jesus says about the relationships between the three members of the Trinity.
 - a) How would you characterize the community within the Trinity?
 - b) How do they show love for one another?
 - c) What are their working relationships like?
- 2) What are some ways that ministries could model love and care for other ministries based on the model of the Trinity?

If you need help with ideas, relationships between ministries is what my book, The Church at Work, is all about. It is full of real-world examples of how Christian ministries have successful relationships and could be a great resource for you.

- 3) Are there particular types or categories of ministries you find more challenging than others to be in relationship with? Pray and let the Spirit guide you with respect to these ministries.
- 4) How could the leaders of your ministry become more collegial within the Christian ministry community?
