- 1) Study some of the prophets such as Jeremiah, Elijah, and Job.
 - a) How did they fit into God's leadership model for his people of king/priest/prophet?
 - b) What is God's measure of success for his prophets?
- 2) As Christ's leader for one of his ministries, there may be times when he wants you to bring correction to the ministry.
 - a) How willing are you to say things that may not be well received?
 - b) Could you speak a word of correction to your employer if God led you to deliver it? How do you feel about your answer?
- 3) When you think of the ministry you lead, what attributes does it need to thrive in the current environment and for the foreseeable future?
 - a) If change is needed, how can you minimize resistance to change before it develops?
- 4) What is the primary leadership model you apply to your own leadership? How conducive is it to challenging the status quo?
- 5) Did anything in the review of the three leadership models in the post challenge you?
 - a) If yes, what was the challenge?
 - b) How could you test the challenge or make use of it?
- 6) Did anything said about those three models inspire you?
 - a) If yes, describe what you were inspired about.
 - b) What action could you take based on that inspiration?
