- 1) The Christian faith offers a starkly different worldview than any other faith or ideology.
    - a) Define your understanding of the unshakeable, core distinctive beliefs of the Christian faith.
    - b) In the context of your ministry, how prominent are these beliefs to your various audiences?
      - i) If they are not prominent, why? What is your rationale? Do you feel you have compromised your integrity as a Christian ministry? What steps have you taken to prevent loss of your Christian identity?
  - 2) What do you most want people touched by your ministry to know about the change brought about by a new life in Christ? What traits of God the Father and Jesus Christ would you most like them to experience from you and your staff/volunteers/church members?
    - a) How could you incorporate your answers to this question in the life of your ministry and the way your people do their work?
  - 3) Boldness and confidence come as we have our own personal encounters with Jesus Christ. What can we do to support the spiritual growth and vitality of our staff and volunteers?
