BUILDING COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

- 1) What do I believe about God's provision for my ministry, and would people be able to correctly figure out what I believe based on what I actually do?
 - 2) How might I help young people enter the Christian ministry sector? Am I open to giving them time? If I see great potential, am I connected enough with people in other Christian ministries to be able to introduce them?
 - 3) Who could I invite to participate in a small group to discuss the Evangelical movement and how we can better fulfill the church's mission? Who might help me get a group started?
 - 4) How important is contributing to the community to me? How much of my time could I give to community leadership? Is there anything I could do to gain some time?
 - 5) What does a robust Evangelical movement look like? What is it doing better than today? How is it stronger than today? How can I make my own ministry look like that?
