PSALM 100: GRACIOUS LEADERSHIP

https://www.ccc.org/news_blogs/john/2016/11/14/psalm-100-gracious-leadership

- 1) Does your primary understanding of God tend to the harsher or the more compassionate end of the spectrum? How do you think those you lead see you?
- 2) Make a list of areas in your leadership in which you could demonstrate more grace. List some specific ways you could be gracious in specific situations, and begin implementing them.
- 3) Regularly reflect on your graciousness by asking yourself:
 - a) Am I leading from a spirit of love and compassion?
 - b) Am I helping my staff learn and grow towards living up to the standards our ministry needs?
 - c) Am I keeping my team's welfare in mind ahead of my own?
 - d) Am I humble and confident enough to allow team members to take the spotlight?
 - e) Am I cheering my employees on?
 - f) Am I aware of my limitations and do I defer to staff in those areas?
