- 1) Which non-Christian charities have interests which overlap yours? Who's working with the same beneficiaries you are? Pick one or two and make a plan to build relationship with them. Is there anything you might do together, or is there at least any way you could show support for them?
 - 2) Review your organizational assets - both tangible and intangible - and highlight anything you have which could be made available or put to use for the benefit of the secular public. How might that be done?
 - 3) What can you do to equip the people within your sphere of influence to go out into the world and be fully engaged as the church? Do some brainstorming and create a list of easy ways people can be representatives of Christ in their own neighbourhoods and workplaces.
