- 1) Review the post with your management team and ask them:
    - a) Reflecting on what you have observed of our management over the last year, can you think of anything that we might be 'blind' to?
    - b) Do you hold any views or assumptions that are contrary to what we are acting upon?
    - c) Is there any evidence of 'groupthink' between us?
    - d) When we make decisions, do we come up with a full range of options to consider? Do we do enough to find realistic alternatives and hear contrary opinions?
  - 2) Add the questions in the post to your next board agenda.
