- 1) What emotional and psychological needs are met when you act as the owner of your job?
 - 2) What other benefits do you get by exercising ownership and control over your job?
 - 3) How would you feel different emotionally and psychologically by thinking of yourself as a steward and Christ as the owner?
 - 4) What differences would your workmates observe about you when you act as a steward?
 - 5) What steps could you take to demonstrate to yourself and others that you are trusting God with your job by acting as a steward?
