Reflection Questions

1. Am I comfortable using the word 'love' in the context of my leadership and to speak about it with my team? If not, why not? What would help me talk more freely about love between Christians?
2. What new ways of thinking or habits of practice would help me be more conscious in the moments of each day that I am representing Christ to the ministry's staff and volunteers?
3. Review your staff individually, and for the one person you think would be most difficult to show Christian love to, pray for and then listen for a first step you could take to demonstrate Christ's love for them.
